WHAT TO DO:

1. In a large heavy pot, heat the oil to 170°C. Add the onion and cook for 8 mins or until the onions are cooked and start to brown. Using a slotted spoon, transfer the onions to paper towels to drain the excess oil. Season lightly with salt.

2. Return the temperature of the oil to 170°C and add the potatoes. Cook, stirring frequently, for 12 mins or until the potatoes are cooked and start to brown. Using a slotted spoon, transfer the potatoes to paper towels to drain the excess oil. Season lightly with salt. In a large bowl, toss the onions and potatoes with the egg and season with 1 tsp salt. Reserve the oil.

2. Heat a non-stick frying pan over medium heat. Add 1 tbsp of the reserved oil and the potato-egg mixture. Using a spatula, lightly stir the mixture for 4 mins or until beginning to set on the bottom. Then allow the mixture to cook without stirring for 3 mins or until the edges of the mixture have set. Using the spatula, release the tortilla from the pan. Slide gently onto a large plate. Invert the plate, flipping the uncooked side into the pan. Cook for 3 mins or until the tortilla is set. Transfer to a cutting board and set aside while you make the salad.

3. In a medium bowl, whisk together the vinegar, lemon juice and Dijon mustard. Whisk in 1 1/2 tbsp of the reserved oil, discarding the remaining oil. Add the lettuce and herbs, and toss to coat. Slice the tortilla as desired and serve warm or at room temperature with the salad.

<td>200g good-quality dark chocolate, coarsely chopped</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>250ml (1 cup) milk</td>

WHAT TO DO:

1. Combine water and butter in a medium saucepan and bring to the boil over high heat. Cook, stirring, for 3-4 minutes or until butter melts. Remove from heat.
2. Add the flour and salt and stir with a wooden spoon until well combined and the dough comes away from the side of the saucepan. Cover with plastic wrap and set aside for 15 minutes or until cool.
3. Add the eggs, 1 at a time, beating well after each addition, until well combined. Spoon dough into a piping bag fitted with a 2cm-diameter fluted nozzle.
4. Add enough oil to a large saucepan to reach a depth of 6cm. Heat to 180°C over medium heat (when oil is ready a cube of bread will turn golden brown in 15 seconds). Using a small sharp knife to cut the dough, pipe four 10cm lengths into the oil. Deep-fry for 1-2 minutes or until golden brown. Use a slotted spoon to transfer churros to a plate lined with paper towel. Dust with icing sugar. Repeat with the remaining dough, reheating oil between batches.
5. Meanwhile, combine the chocolate and milk in a medium saucepan over medium heat. Cook, stirring, for 5 minutes or until chocolate melts and the mixture is smooth.
6. Arrange churros on a platter and serve with chocolate dipping sauce.
